August 10, 2013

Greetings and Welcome to the Connecticut Prince Hall Scottish Rite Sixth Annual Scholarship Golf Classic sponsored by the Connecticut Prince Hall Scottish Rite Scholarship Fund, Inc. The Fund, classified as a 501 (C) 3 Private Foundation under the Internal Revenue Code, is composed of Prince Hall Scottish Rite Masons of the Connecticut Council of Deliberation.

Being well aware of the escalating costs for higher education, the Fund was founded to raise funds to financially assist achieving graduating high school students based on their academic performance, demonstrated leadership qualities, participation in school and community activities and have presented a statement of career and educational goals and objectives. All must have been accepted at either a four year school of higher education or a community college.

All net proceeds from this tournament are earmarked as financial grants to the successful applicants. To date we have supported four high school graduates. Please enjoy your day and thank you for your continued support of our efforts.

Sincerely and Fraternally,

Kountz first came to News Channel 8 in 1987 as a reporter. Shortly thereafter he was promoted to Weekend Anchor. In 1994 he became co-anchor of Connecticut's top rated early morning newscast "Good Morning Connecticut at 5am" and "Good Morning Connecticut at 6am". Kountz also co-anchored News Channel 8 at noon. In 1998, Kountz left Connecticut to become a main anchor at WJXX in Jacksonville, Florida.

"I'm so thrilled to be back", says Keith. "Connecticut is like home to me. I love the area, my family loves the area and being back is a dream come true". He goes on to say "the people of News Channel 8 are like family. I've known Ann, Mel and Geoff for over a decade. They're more than co-workers, they're friends and they make the work environment that much better".

While at WTNH, Kountz received acclaim for his news series called "Who We Are", which focused on individuals, organizations and issues important to minorities throughout the state. He also hosted "Wednesday's Child", a weekly series that featured children in need of adoption. As a part of the greater New Haven community for more than 13 years, Keith has worked closely with a variety of charities. Some of these include the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, Big Brothers / Big Sisters and the Boys and Girls Club.

Before working in New Haven, Keith served in a similar capacity at WIXT-TV in Syracuse, New York. He has also worked at WSAV-TV in Savannah, Georgia and WPDE-TV in Florence, South Carolina. Keith has been the recipient of more than 40 civic and professional awards, including the Greater New Haven NAACP Media Award (2000), the Greater New Haven 40 Under 40 Award (1997) and LIN Television's "Circle of Excellence" award.

An avid golfer, Keith and his wife Dawn are the parents of two daughters.

CONNECTICUT PRINCE HALL SCOTTISH RITE HISTORY

CONNECTICUT PRINCE HALL SCOTTISH RITE HISTORY

The first Scottish Rite organization among African-Americans was the African Grand Council of 1820 in Philadelphia, which was referred to as a Council of Princes of Jerusalem. This Council arose through West Indian migration, for Stephen Morin had propagated the Rite there. The organization of the King David Supreme Council grew out of conferring in Philadelphia (1850) of the 33rd Degree by Count DeSaint Laurent of the Supreme Council of Spain on David Leary, the first Black Inspector General of the Prince Hall Scottish Rite.

Scottish Rite Masonry came to Connecticut on August 20, 1892. New Haven Consistory No. 7 was chartered September 29, 1892 with Illustrious Robert L. Reed as its first Illustrious Commander-in-Chief. Brother Reed later served as the Sovereign Grand Commander of the United Supreme Council, Northern Jurisdiction from 1897-1898. Illustrious George W. Crawford, 33° of New Haven, served as Sovereign Grand Commander from 1949 through 1965. Our present Sovereign Grand Commander is Illustrious Brother Solomon Wallace, 33°, of Queens, New York.

PAST SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT—FELICIA MCBRIDE

Dear Mr. Cherry,

I would like to acknowledge your letter and thank you for inquiring on my academic pursuits since the support of your scholarship fund.

I enrolled at Rutgers State University in 2007 and graduated in 2011 with a B.A. in Labor and Employment Relations. I continued on at Rutgers however for a Masters in Human Resource Management and earned that degree this past May.

I am very happy and fortunate to report this successful experience. Along the way, I was still faced with a lot of financial hardship resulting in a significant amount of loans to date, but I am nonetheless very thankful for your generosity that afforded me the access.

I thank you and your council greatly, and welcome you to keep in touch. I am currently working in a graduate internship in New Jersey and seeking full-time work.

Regards,

Felicia McBride

My name is Thomas A. Lytle, I'm 18 and I will be attending American International College in Springfield, MA in the Fall of 2013 majoring in Business Management. I have experienced many opportunities that have been granted to me, and therefore, I do not take anything for granted. First and foremost, I want to give Honor and Glory to God who is the head of my life.

My goal is to own and operate my own restaurant called "Tommy Boyz". I have been involved in several organizations in and outside of my church and have received several distinguished awards. I was selected as a contest winner of the Disney Dreamers Academy with Steve Harvey and Essence Magazine in March 2013. Some of my other Awards / Organization Affiliations are: Presiding Elder Scholarship book award, Greater Hartford Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance, Inc. book award, Greater Hartford Male Youth Leadership Program book award, Iron Man award for 5 years of participation in the Town of Windsor Football League, "Youth of the Year for the New England Annual Conference of the AME Church", Youth People's Department President, ANJ Chorale, Acolyte, Youth Usher VP, Dept. of Christian Education and Future Business Leaders of America. Thank you very much for providing me with the Connecticut Prince Hall Scottish Rite Scholarship Award, it is greatly appreciated!

Khalil graduated this June from High School Inc., the Insurance and Finance academy in downtown Hartford, CT, where he was an honor roll student, CAPT Scholar and ranked 9th in his senior class.

Khalil was a 3 sport varsity athlete playing football, basketball and baseball for Hartford Public High school. Khalil is an active member of his church, Bethel A.M.E. in Bloomfield, CT where he is the V.P. of the Y.P.D, sings in the choir and an acolyte.

Throughout his high school career, especially his senior year Khalil has won and been named to numerous awards such as being named with the 2012 Richard Weaver-Bey Youth leadership award by the CT River Valley Boy Scouts, 2013 African American Affairs Commission Youth of the year and a 2013 YMCA Youth Achiever just to name a few. Khalil also volunteered his time in the evenings this summer at the Boys and Girls club and the Hartford Pro-Am while working his internship at Prudential Insurance during the day.

Khalil will be attending Hampton University in Virginia in the fall of 2013 where he will be majoring in Business Management and Finance.
